Dr. Alan Jones,

You showed your review, so I have right show my defense.

You have not replied my following question:

Can I show your review with your name in our web site?

Zhonghao,

Attached is the review. Susan Hough, SRL Editor, gave me permission to make the review available to you. And, yes, you may place it on your web site.

If you or your correspondents do not have access to the SRL paper by my brother and myself, I will be glad to send that, also. I have copied my brother on this note.
